EVMix for Livestock Health

Optimum Carotene & Vitamin E Supplementation Provide Health Benefits

Cattle & Dairy Cows

- As a source of provitamin vitamin A and vitamin E.
- Improves fertility and reproductive performance.
- Vitamin E plus selenium improves milk production during lactation.
- Reduces the rate of retained placenta, mastitis and other infectious disease postpartum.
- Improves meat color stability.

Poultry

- Increased deposition of beta-carotene and vitamin E in egg yolk significantly.
- Enhances pigmentation of egg yolk, with a reading of more than 10 (measured by YolkFan[™]) "Golden Yolk".
- Fresher and higher quality eggs with Higher Haugh Unit.

Swine

- Improves reproductive performance.
- Sows supplemented with Vitamin E plus selenium improves piglet survival.
- Heavier litter.
- Both Vitamin A & E enhance immune responses.
- Significantly reduced incidence of Post Weaning Multisystemic Wasting Syndrome (PMWS).

Aquaculture

• Improves pigmentation in shrimp, prawn and fish.

ExcelVite

Your Preferred Partner In Palm Nutraceutical Excellence

Disclaimer: The statements in the above article has not been evaluated by the Food and Drug Administration.

hev are not intended to diaanose, treat, cure, or pre

www.excelvite.com
www.tocotrienol.org
www.carotene.org

⊠ info@excelvite.com

Copyright 2021 ExcelVite Sdn. Bhd.